

A FREE CURSIVE WRITING WORKSHOP

OFFERED BY THE VIOLIN & PIANO STUDIO
AT FIRST FREE COFFEE BAR

Your child wants to succeed. Yet, in order for success to become a reality, the fundamental building blocks of focus, concentration and coordination need to be established. For this reason, Janice Mauroschatd has integrated cursive writing into her private music studio offerings.

As a professional violinist and botanical illustrator, Ms. Mauroschatd not only “gets” the body/brain connection between fine motor skills and executive function, but also has research to back it up. She would love to share what she’s learned and help your children discover their hidden potential through a free, introductory workshop. So come, bring your child (ages 6 yrs +) and partake of a delicious cup of coffee while Ms. Mauroschatd shares vital information with you and teaches your children some of cursive writing basics! Materials will be provided (maximum of 2 students per family) and...the first 5 cups of coffee (1 cup per family) are on the house!!!
